Are Regional Board Members Named Illegally

SALISBURY — Have the members of the Region I Board of Education been chosen illegally the past 133 years? Keith Bond, a Salisbury resident and a teacher at Housatonic Valley Regional High School, raised the question at the Board of Selectmen Bond explained that HVRIS, the Irrst regional high school in Connecticut operated for several years ticut operated for several years under Special Act 405 passed in 1959

Later legislation - Public Act 968. Later legislation – Public Act 988, passed in 1968 — provides for members of a regional high school board to be nominated and elected by the legislative body of the region s member towns, which in the Northwest Corner is the town meeting Members of the Region 1 meeting Members of the Region 1 to the control of the boards of education in the six towns in the region and in almost every case have been members of those boards.

An Appreciation:

Lillian Davenport Daboll

By I.lia Nash
It is a great privilege for me to pay iribute to Lillian Davenport Duboil and the genealogical work she accomplished, not only in Salisbury but in the state accomplish-

and nation
I recall the many many letters from all over the country addressed to the town clerks office while I was there, saking for information on early settlers and their families down through the centuries Lillian was always available happy.

cheerful and willing to cooperate, otherwise many would have been otherwise many would have been unanswered. She spent hours in the town vault and it not satisfied with the records, she was off to the state and national archives. Donations were sometimes mailed to her for a historic society or civic project from appreciative folks she had helped.

We often hear someone say "Genealogy is so boring Not so for Lillian Daboll, who con tributed much to its value — and the town has lost not only a worthy citizen but a dedicated genealogist
